

Camp Horne Summer Camp Staff Application

Black Warrior Council, B.S.A.

Each year, the Black Warrior Council, B.S.A., operates a summer camping program to serve the youth registered in Scouting across our 12 West Alabama Counties. To deliver an effective and high-quality program, seasonal staff are recruited, selected, and employed to serve on the camp staff.

Qualifications

1. Youth who are 14 years of age may apply to serve a portion of the camping season as a "Counselor-in-Training (C.I.T.)" in a non-paid capacity.
2. Older Youth and adults must be at least 15 years or older by the first day of the camp season.
3. Scouting experience is preferred but not required. However, ALL camp staff members must be registered as a "Camp Staff" member during the time of service.
4. All employees will be required to complete Employment Eligibility Verification (I-9), W-4, and A-4 forms as required by local, state, or federal law.
5. Selected staff must be able to participate in camp staff training sessions and complete BSA required online training videos. Staff training and camping season dates are listed on the summer camp webpage.

Please print legibly.
